Exclusive Private Lands

Soaring Eagle Lodge has exclusive fishing access to the DeHerrera Ranch, a pristine stretch of private land surrounding the lodge. With giant Cottonwoods, grassy cut-banks, and wild Brown Trout, this stretch of the San Juan River is truly a fly fisherman's dream. For your solitude, the number of anglers are limited and restricted in this area. Fly fishing only, barbless hook, and catch and release are practiced here, insuring fish population and quality that are second to none.

World-Class Dining

As the San Juan River's only restaurant with two professional chefs; we provide an experience that sets us apart from other accommodations. Our cuisine has distinctive American regional flavors incorporating continental techniques.

We offer first rate meals year round that are certain to exceed expectations. As chefs who fly fish on their days off, we fully cherish the role we play in your overall experience at Soaring Eagle Lodge.

Great Guides

Soaring Eagle Lodge is proud to offer one of the most seasoned and knowledgeable guide staffs in the Southwest. From casting to catching, these guys will not only show you the ins and outs of fly fishing, but drastically improve your productivity while fishing the San Juan. Our guides will customize your trip to include floating, wading, or spending a day on our secluded stretch of private land. From beginner to expert, our guides will make your day on the river a memorable one. Full day guided trips include lunch and a minimum of 8 hours of fishing and instruction.

Full-Line Fly Shop

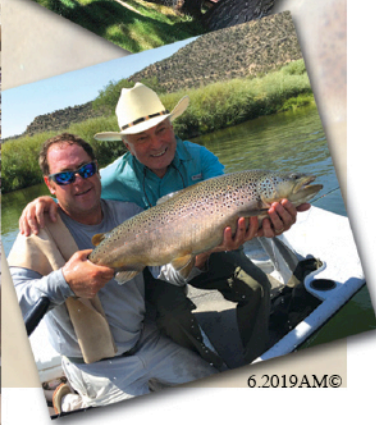

The Lodge has a full-line fly shop for your convenience. We carry Sage & Reddington rods, Hatch & Sage reels, Simms, Patagonia, Costa Del Mar, Umpqua, and many other high quality product lines. New Mexico fishing licenses are available in our shop, and the rental department offers top-of-the-line equipment.

Soaring Eagle Lodge is nestled on the banks of the San Juan River in northwestern New Mexico. The river is world-renowned for year-round fly fishing at its best. As the San Juan's premier riverfront Lodge, we offer restful accommodations, meals, guide service, fly fishing instruction, float trips, fly shop, private river access on the DeHerrera Ranch, and much more.

Angler Friendly Accommodations

Our accommodations are "Angler Friendly" and set up with the fly fisherman in mind! Our stream-side cabins are within casting distance of the river. Soaring Eagle offers you an unparalleled view of the famous San Juan.
